DATE / TIME OF INCIDENT: SEPTEMBER 30, 2017 / 1618 hours

ALLEGATIONS:

It is alleged Deputy Jason Diaz, [REDACTED] (hereafter referred to as Subject Diaz), while off duty, punched his wife, Deputy [REDACTED] (hereafter referred to as Witness [REDACTED]), in the face in front of their minor children, while on vacation in Lake Arrowhead.

SYNOPSIS:

Subject Diaz and Witness [REDACTED] are married and [REDACTED] together. Witness [REDACTED] has [REDACTED] from a previous marriage. On September 29, 2017, the couple took their [REDACTED] to Lake Arrowhead. The couple rented a two story cabin at the Saddleback Inn, in the city of Lake Arrowhead, room 33. On September 30, 2017, in the early afternoon hours, the couple walked with their family down the street to the Lake Arrowhead Village for Oktoberfest. Subject Diaz and Witness [REDACTED] both consumed several beers while attending Oktoberfest. The couple began to argue. Witness [REDACTED] took the [REDACTED] and returned to the cabin. Subject Diaz returned shortly thereafter.

The couple resumed their argument. Witness [REDACTED] began to pack her belongings in an attempt to leave. Subject Diaz grabbed the car keys and walked toward the door. Witness [REDACTED] quickly followed behind him and grabbed Subject Diaz by the collar of his t-shirt. Subject Diaz turned around and punched Witness [REDACTED] in the right eye one time. Witness [REDACTED] fell backward onto the floor. [REDACTED] were present during the altercation. Witness [REDACTED], who is [REDACTED] years of age, called 911 [EXHIBIT A]. The [REDACTED] year old [REDACTED] told the 911 dispatcher he saw his [REDACTED] Subject Diaz) punch his [REDACTED] (Witness [REDACTED] in the face. The couple then retreated to the master bedroom.

San Bernardino County Sheriff's Deputy [REDACTED] (hereafter referred to as Witness [REDACTED]) and Sergeant [REDACTED] (hereafter referred to as Witness [REDACTED] from the Twin Peaks Station, arrived on scene. The deputies knocked and made announcements on the rental cabin for approximately ten (10) minutes before Witness [REDACTED] year old [REDACTED] opened the door. He whispered to Witness [REDACTED] that both his [REDACTED] were sheriff's deputies and they were located in the master bedroom. Subject Diaz exited the master bedroom and was detained by Witness [REDACTED] while Witness [REDACTED] conducted an interview with Witness [REDACTED] and the children. Witness [REDACTED] had swelling and bruising to her right eye and was physically upset.

Witness [REDACTED] told Witness [REDACTED] Subject Diaz punched her in the face. Two (2) of the [REDACTED] also told Witness [REDACTED] they witnessed Subject Diaz punch Witness [REDACTED] in the face. Witness [REDACTED] told Witness [REDACTED] she did not open the door when they arrived because Subject Diaz threatened to kill himself if she opened the door.

Both Witness [REDACTED] and Witness [REDACTED] were wearing an audio recording device during their contact with the Witness [REDACTED] and Subject Diaz. Therefore, all statements were recorded [EXHIBIT B].

Subject Diaz was arrested for felony domestic violence (273.5(a) Penal Code). Subject Diaz denied punching Witness [REDACTED] to Witness [REDACTED]. The incident was documented under case number 051701627, dated September 30, 2017, authored by Witness [REDACTED] and a supplemental report written by Witness [REDACTED] [EXHIBIT C].

On December 17, 2017, the criminal case against Subject Diaz held a pre-trial hearing at the Superior Court of San Bernardino, under case MSB17015492 [EXHIBIT D]. Supervising Deputy District Attorney [REDACTED] (hereafter referred to as Witness [REDACTED]) was assisting with the case. Witness [REDACTED] and Victim Advocate [REDACTED] (hereafter referred to as Witness [REDACTED]) sat with Witness [REDACTED] to discuss the details of the case. At that time, Witness [REDACTED] recanted the series of events which transpired between Subject Diaz and herself. Witness [REDACTED] told Witness [REDACTED] Subject Diaz did not intentionally strike her (Witness [REDACTED]). Witness [REDACTED] explained Subject Diaz fell backward onto her, accidentally striking her in the face with his left elbow. Witness [REDACTED] also denied Subject Diaz told her he wanted to kill himself. Witness [REDACTED] advised Witness [REDACTED] of the audio recording with Witness [REDACTED]. Witness [REDACTED] stated the police report written by Witness [REDACTED] was not accurate. Due to the fact Witness [REDACTED] was recanting her story, Witness [REDACTED] dismissed the case against Subject Diaz on April 27, 2018, under case MSB17015492 [EXHIBIT D].

IAB Note: Concerned with Witness [REDACTED] and Subject Diaz' conduct during the scope of a criminal investigation, Witness [REDACTED] contacted Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, Metrolink Bureau, Captain Karl Schow, [REDACTED], to report the suspected misconduct. Captain Schow relayed the information to Century Regional Detention Facility's (CRDF) Captain Diana Gealta, [REDACTED] on May 4, 2018. Captain Gealta told Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) investigators she consulted with Division Chief Christy Guyovich, [REDACTED], and it was decided not to make Witness [REDACTED] a subject at that time.

INVESTIGATION:

911 Call – September 30, 2017

Subject Diaz' [REDACTED] year old [REDACTED] called 911. The [REDACTED] year old [REDACTED] whispered to dispatch that he was hiding in the closet awaiting deputies' arrival. [REDACTED] () year old [REDACTED] said, "My [REDACTED] punched my [REDACTED] in the face. My [REDACTED] needs medical attention" [EXHIBIT A].

IAB investigators interviewed the below personnel and witnesses. The following is a summary of their interviews. For more information and precise wording, see the attached verbatim interview transcriptions.

Witness Deputy [REDACTED]

On August 20, 2018, IAB investigators conducted an interview with Witness [REDACTED] in San Bernardino County.

Witness [REDACTED] is a deputy sheriff with the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department and he was stationed at the Twin Peaks Station at the time of this incident. Witness [REDACTED] said he received a domestic disturbance call at the Saddleback Inn, room 33, in the city of Lake Arrowhead. When he arrived at the location, he turned on his digital belt audio recorder [EXHIBIT B, Witness [REDACTED] Witness [REDACTED] responded to room 33 and knocked on the door and announced himself for several minutes. Witness [REDACTED] arrived on scene shortly thereafter. Witness [REDACTED] and Witness [REDACTED] made announcements for approximately ten (10) minutes, pounding on every window and door to the location. There was no movement inside the small stand-alone cabin. Finally, a [REDACTED] () year old male opened the door for the deputies. The [REDACTED] () year old whispered to Witness [REDACTED] that both his [REDACTED] were deputies. Witness [REDACTED] advised the [REDACTED] () year old [REDACTED] to take his other [REDACTED] upstairs while he contacted Witness [REDACTED] and Subject Diaz.

Subject Diaz came out of the master bedroom wearing shorts and no shirt. Subject Diaz said that he had been sleeping and did not hear the officer's knocking. Witness [REDACTED] was locked inside the master bathroom. Subject Diaz was cooperative and walked outside with Witness [REDACTED] while Witness [REDACTED] attempted to make contact with Witness [REDACTED]

Witness [REDACTED] opened the bathroom door for Witness [REDACTED] Witness [REDACTED] was crying and appeared physically upset. Witness [REDACTED] could see redness and swelling to Witness [REDACTED] right eye and cheek. It appeared as though Witness [REDACTED] had tried to cover the mark with makeup. Witness [REDACTED] told Witness [REDACTED] Subject Diaz had punched her in the face causing the bruising and swelling to her face.

Witness [REDACTED] went on to say the couple had been in Lake Arrowhead to attend Oktoberfest at the Lake Arrowhead Village. The couple drank several beers. Subject Diaz started acting bizarre and the couple began to argue. They returned to the Saddleback Inn where the arguing continued. Witness [REDACTED] began to pack her clothing and Subject Diaz took the car keys and began to walk out the door. Witness [REDACTED] felt she would be stranded if Subject Diaz left with their only vehicle. So Witness [REDACTED] followed behind him and grabbed the back of his shirt. Subject Diaz turned around and punched her in the left eye. Witness [REDACTED] fell backward onto the floor.

Witness [REDACTED] told Witness [REDACTED] she believed her oldest [REDACTED] who is [REDACTED] years old, witnessed the punch and then called the police. Witness [REDACTED] ran back to the master bedroom where she locked herself in the bathroom. Witness [REDACTED] said she heard Witness [REDACTED] and Witness [REDACTED] knocking on the front door; however, Subject Diaz threatened if she were to open the door, he would kill himself.

Witness [REDACTED] interviewed the [REDACTED]. The [REDACTED] year old [REDACTED] said he saw Subject Diaz punch Witness [REDACTED] in the face and then she fell to the floor. As a second [REDACTED] was coming down the stairs, they saw Witness [REDACTED] on the floor but did not see Subject Diaz punch her. The other [REDACTED] did not see the incident but did hear the arguing. Witness [REDACTED] said all the [REDACTED] looked physically upset.

Witness [REDACTED] took photographs of Witness [REDACTED] injuries [EXHIBIT E]. Witness [REDACTED] placed Subject Diaz under arrest for felony spousal assault, violation of 273.5(a) P.C. Witness [REDACTED] read Subject Diaz his Miranda rights. Subject Diaz stated he understood his rights and agreed to speak with Witness [REDACTED] without an attorney present. Subject Diaz told Witness [REDACTED] an argument between himself and Witness [REDACTED] ensued while they were at Oktoberfest and escalated when they returned to the Saddleback Inn. He said the argument got out of hand but never became physical.

During the booking process, Witness [REDACTED] took photographs of Subject Diaz [EXHIBIT E]. Subject Diaz did not have any injuries or marks on his person. Witness [REDACTED] said Subject Diaz was professional and cooperative throughout the booking process.

Witness [REDACTED] said both deputies had their firearms in the master bedroom at the time of the incident; however, the firearms were put away in a dresser drawer.

25:13 – Witness [REDACTED] asked Subject Diaz to tell his side of the story. Subject Diaz said, it was "just a dumb argument".

Witness Sergeant [REDACTED]

On August 21, 2018, IAB investigators conducted a telephonic interview with Witness [REDACTED]

Witness [REDACTED] is a sergeant with the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department and was the station watch commander at Twin Peaks Station at the time of this incident.

Witness [REDACTED] said Witness [REDACTED] was the first deputy on scene and broadcasted information that he was knocking on the door and was not getting an answer. He went on to say, that due to the fact that the call for service involved an off-duty deputy, Witness [REDACTED] decided to respond.

Witness [REDACTED] stated prior to his promotion to [REDACTED], he was a member of the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department SWAT team and knew the importance of making notice prior to entering a residence. Witness [REDACTED] and Witness [REDACTED] made loud vigorous announcements and banged on all the windows and doors of the cabin with their flashlights in hand. Witness [REDACTED] said it was his concern that if an off duty deputy was involved in the altercation, there was a good likelihood he would be armed.

After ten (10) minutes of knocking on the door and making announcements, Witness [REDACTED] relayed to their dispatch to re-contact the reporting party which was the [REDACTED] ([REDACTED] year old [REDACTED]). Dispatch was able to re-contact the juvenile and the juvenile opened the door for them. Once inside, Witness [REDACTED] and Witness [REDACTED] continued to announce their presence.

The [REDACTED] ([REDACTED] year old [REDACTED]) pointed at a door directly opposite of the front entrance door and indicated that his [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were in that room. Witness [REDACTED] told the [REDACTED] ([REDACTED]) year old [REDACTED] to take his [REDACTED] upstairs. Witness [REDACTED] then opened the bedroom door. Subject Diaz was standing behind the door. Witness [REDACTED] asked Subject Diaz to step outside with him. Subject Diaz cooperated.

Subject Diaz and Witness [REDACTED] spoke briefly while Witness [REDACTED] spoke with Witness [REDACTED] and the [REDACTED] inside. During that time, Subject Diaz told Witness [REDACTED] that he and Witness [REDACTED] were both deputies with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department. Subject Diaz further explained they were visiting Lake Arrowhead to participate in the Oktoberfest festivities at the Lake Arrowhead Village. Subject Diaz told Witness [REDACTED] that while they were at Oktoberfest, Witness [REDACTED] and Subject Diaz got into an argument, which escalated and got out of control. Subject Diaz said the argument was "really bad" but never became physical.

Witness [REDACTED] described Subject Diaz' demeanor as groggy, as if he was either asleep or heavily intoxicated; however, he was compliant and cooperative. Witness [REDACTED] could smell alcohol emitting from Subject Diaz breath and person. Witness [REDACTED] did not observe any injuries on Subject Diaz.

Witness [REDACTED] placed Subject Diaz under arrest for felony domestic violence. Out of professional courtesy, Subject Diaz was not handcuffed in front of his [REDACTED]. He was handcuffed while inside the backseat of the patrol vehicle. At no time did Subject Diaz ask for any special privileges due to his peace officer status.

Witness [REDACTED] asked Witness [REDACTED] to speak with her watch commander at CRDF. During his brief contact with Witness [REDACTED], Witness [REDACTED] saw a bruise underneath her right eye.

Witness [REDACTED] explained that his department issued a small digital audio recorder that a deputy can attach to their belt or wear in their shirt pocket. Witness [REDACTED] was wearing his belt audio recorder when he responded to the call for service on September 30, 2017 [EXHIBIT B, Witness ██████████]

Witness San Bernardino County Deputy District Attorney [REDACTED]

On June 20, 2018, IAB investigators interviewed Witness Deputy District Attorney [REDACTED] at the San Bernardino District Attorney's Office.

Witness [REDACTED] told IAB investigators during an interview with Witness [REDACTED], in December of 2017, Witness [REDACTED] recanted the series of events that she had told Witness [REDACTED] and Witness [REDACTED]. Witness [REDACTED] told Witness [REDACTED] Subject Diaz had struck her "accidentally" while he was falling backward from Witness [REDACTED] pulling at the back of his t-shirt. Witness [REDACTED] also stated Witness [REDACTED] denied telling Witness [REDACTED] Subject Diaz threatened to kill himself. Based on the above statements, Witness [REDACTED] felt she could not proceed with the criminal charges against Subject Diaz and dismissed the case on April 27, 2018. Witness [REDACTED] expressed her concerns of "Brady issues" to the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Departments' command staff.

Witness San Bernardino County Victim Advocate [REDACTED]

On June 20, 2018, IAB investigators interviewed Witness Victim Advocate [REDACTED]. Witness [REDACTED] stated she was present in the room when Witness [REDACTED] conducted an interview with Witness [REDACTED]. Witness [REDACTED] confirmed Witness [REDACTED] told Witness [REDACTED] that Subject Diaz struck her "accidentally." Witness [REDACTED] stated Witness [REDACTED] seemed more concerned about protecting Subject Diaz than herself.

Witness [REDACTED]

On October 12, 2018, IAB investigators conducted an interview with Witness [REDACTED] at CRDF.

Witness [REDACTED] told investigators Subject Diaz and herself had been married for approximately four (4) years and had [REDACTED] together and Witness [REDACTED] had [REDACTED] from a previous marriage.

On September 29, 2017, the couple had taken the [REDACTED] to Lake Arrowhead for a weekend getaway. The couple had rented a cabin at the Saddleback Inn, in Lake Arrowhead, within walking distance to the Lake Arrowhead Village. On September 30, 2017, the couple and the [REDACTED] walked to the village where the town was holding an Oktoberfest festival.

Both Subject Diaz and Witness [REDACTED] drank several beers while at Oktoberfest. Witness [REDACTED] said Subject Diaz began to "act silly" and she became irritated with him. Witness [REDACTED] wanted to take the [REDACTED] to get ice cream but Subject Diaz bought another beer instead. The couple walked with the children back to the cabin. Witness [REDACTED] began to pack their belongings and planned on leaving due to Subject Diaz' demeanor.

Witness [REDACTED] said Subject Diaz took the car keys and locked himself in the master bathroom. Witness [REDACTED] banged on the door asking him what he was doing. Subject Diaz then "bolted" from the bathroom and walked straight for the car. Witness [REDACTED] said her first reaction was that she needed to stop Subject Diaz from driving away in the vehicle because he had been drinking.

Witness [REDACTED] said she followed behind him and when she reached the apex of the front door she grabbed the back of Subject Diaz' t-shirt. Witness [REDACTED] said she heard the t-shirt begin to rip. Witness [REDACTED] said everything happened so fast after that, before she knew it, she was on the floor. Witness [REDACTED] proceeded to say, Subject Diaz swung his arm around and accidentally struck her in the face. Witness [REDACTED] said she never saw Subject Diaz strike her.

Witness [REDACTED] said she never told the responding deputy sheriff's that Subject Diaz ever struck her and that the police report was incorrect. IAB investigators advised Witness [REDACTED] the responding deputies were wearing a belt audio recording device at the time of the incident. Witness [REDACTED] stated she knew they were wearing an audio recording device and she adamantly denied telling Witness [REDACTED] that Subject Diaz punched her in the face. Witness [REDACTED] maintained that the incident was an accident.

At that point, IAB investigators concluded the interview and contacted Chief Guyovich for further advisement. Chief Guyovich decided to make Witness [REDACTED] a subject due to the possible policy violations.

On December 13, 2018, IAB investigators conducted a subject interview with Witness [REDACTED]. Witness [REDACTED] was read her subject rights and given the Lybarger Warning. Witness [REDACTED] proceeded to tell IAB investigators the couple drank several beers on September 30, 2017, while at Oktoberfest. Subject Diaz continued to consume alcohol which upset Witness [REDACTED]. The couple began to argue. They decided to return to their cabin due to them fighting. The couple continued to argue while in the master bedroom of the cabin. Subject Diaz elevated the argument by cursing at Witness [REDACTED].

Witness [REDACTED] said she began to pack her belongings into a suitcase. Subject Diaz took the car keys and locked himself inside the master bathroom. Witness [REDACTED] was pounding on the door. Subject Diaz ignored her.

Witness [REDACTED] said after a few moments, Subject Diaz rushed out of the bathroom and walked straight toward the front door. Witness [REDACTED] panicked because Subject Diaz had been drinking and followed behind him. Witness [REDACTED] said in an attempt to stop him from leaving, she grabbed the back of his shirt and pulled the collar. Witness [REDACTED] could hear the t-shirt ripping. Witness [REDACTED] said Subject Diaz turned around and punched her in the face. Witness [REDACTED] added that she quickly got up from the floor and could see the [REDACTED]. Witness [REDACTED] rushed to the master bathroom and locked the door. Witness [REDACTED] said she was in shock and disappointed in Subject Diaz.

Witness [REDACTED] said Subject Diaz followed behind her and began apologizing through the closed bathroom door. Witness [REDACTED] said she heard San Bernardino County deputies knocking on the front door but did not open the door for them because Subject Diaz told her if she did he would kill himself. At the time of the incident, Witness [REDACTED] said she was afraid of Subject Diaz. Witness [REDACTED] said she was surprised to hear Subject Diaz say that he would kill himself because he had never said anything like that to her before.

The next day, on October 1, 2017, Witness [REDACTED] said she took a "selfie" of her face indicating a bruise forming underneath her right eye. A copy of the "selfie" photograph is attached as EXHIBIT F.

Witness [REDACTED] stated Subject Diaz had a court date in December of 2017. Subject Diaz had obtained an attorney to represent him in his criminal proceedings. At the request of the attorney, Witness [REDACTED] met with Subject Diaz' attorney at her home. Witness [REDACTED] stated the attorney advised her to "cover up" for Subject Diaz. Therefore, when Witness [REDACTED] spoke with the San Bernardino County Deputy District Attorney Witness [REDACTED] Witness [REDACTED] lied about Subject Diaz intentionally punching her in the face in order to save Subject Diaz' job. The attorney advised Witness [REDACTED] to say it was an accident only. Witness [REDACTED] stated she knew in her heart that lying to Witness [REDACTED] was wrong.

IAB Note: On January 09, 2019, IAB investigators received an order from Chief Dempsey to remove Witness [REDACTED] from subject status; however, she was to remain as a witness on the case.

Subject Jason Diaz

On December 17, 2018, IAB investigators conducted an interview with Subject Diaz at the IAB offices in the city of Commerce.

Subject Diaz stated he was involved in a use of force several months prior to September of 2017. Subject Diaz suffered an injury which required him to be at home resting for several months. Subject Diaz said he began to drink alcohol heavily during that time.

On September 30, 2017, Subject Diaz and Witness [REDACTED] walked with their children to the Oktoberfest festival from their weekend hotel room in the city of Lake Arrowhead. Subject Diaz and Witness [REDACTED] began to consume several beers. Subject Diaz stated the beers were of German decent and held more alcohol content than he was used to consuming. Subject Diaz said within the few hours they were at the Oktoberfest, he became "drunk."

The couple returned to their room in the mid-afternoon, where they began to argue. Subject Diaz did not remember what the argument was about. Witness [REDACTED] began to pack her clothing into a suitcase. Subject Diaz said he became concerned because she had been drinking and he did not want her to drive. Subject Diaz saw the car keys and took them. Subject Diaz then walked toward the front door. Subject Diaz' intention was to walk to the nearby McDonald's to get something to eat. Witness [REDACTED] followed behind Subject Diaz. Subject Diaz said Witness [REDACTED] grabbed the back of his t-shirt and he could hear his t-shirt ripping.

Subject Diaz said out of impulse, he turned his body to the left and extended his left arm, while thrusting his left fist in a backward motion with full force. When he did this, Subject Diaz struck Witness [REDACTED] in the face and she fell to the floor. Witness [REDACTED] quickly got up from the floor and ran into the master bedroom. Subject Diaz glanced up and saw several of the [REDACTED] standing at the foot of the stairwell. Subject Diaz told the [REDACTED] to return upstairs while he checked on Witness [REDACTED]

Witness [REDACTED] had locked herself in the restroom. Subject Diaz said he immediately felt sorry for striking Witness [REDACTED]. Subject Diaz said the strike was not intentional. Subject Diaz began to plead with Witness [REDACTED] to open the restroom door so he could apologize to her face.

After several minutes of pleading with Witness [REDACTED] to exit the restroom to no avail, Subject Diaz heard the announcements of sheriff's deputies. Subject Diaz said he panicked and told Witness [REDACTED] he would kill himself if she were to open the door for the sheriff's deputies. Subject Diaz said he feared he would be arrested and lose his job. Subject Diaz said he did not mean the comment in a literal sense, he was being "over dramatic."

Subject Diaz said he then fell asleep on the bed until he heard the sheriff's deputies knocking on the master bedroom door. Subject Diaz opened the bedroom door for the deputies and walked outside with Witness [REDACTED]

Subject Diaz said he told the deputies he did not strike Witness [REDACTED] and that they had a heated verbal argument only. Subject Diaz was then arrested for felony spousal assault. Subject Diaz said he was cooperative during the booking process.

Subject Diaz said his private attorney, Roy Diaz, asked to speak with Witness [REDACTED] prior to his court appearance in December 2017. Roy Diaz came to their home and spoke with Witness [REDACTED]. Subject Diaz said Roy Diaz advised Witness [REDACTED] it would be better for the both of them if Witness [REDACTED] told Witness [REDACTED] the incident was an accident and unintentional.

Subject Diaz said himself and Witness [REDACTED] had several discussions about the incident and decided Witness [REDACTED] would tell Witness [REDACTED] a different version of events.

Subject Diaz said he is very regretful of all the events that transpired from that day. Subject Diaz attended and completed anger-management classes, as well as attended fifty (50) hours of Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) classes.

IAB Note: Subject Diaz wrote a letter of apology which he gave to IAB investigators to submit with this case [Miscellaneous Documents].
